

THEOCRATS are all ALIKE –

It's not really about religion
It's about power and control.

George Grant

"Thus, Christian politics has as its primary intent the conquest of the land - of men, families, institutions, bureaucracies, courts, and governments for the Kingdom of Christ. It is to reinstitute the authority of God's Word as supreme over all judgments, over all legislation, over all declarations, constitutions, and confederations. True Christian political action seeks to rein the passions of men and curb the pattern of digression under God's rule." p 50-51.

"A majority of candidates running for the next Majles (parliament) elections have been invalidated because of their rejection of the very fundamentals of the present theocratic Constitution, according to a statement released Friday by the leader-controlled Council of the Guardians 54.5 per cent out of the 8,146 candidates that have registered so far have been rejected by the Council of the Guardians because they either "do not believe in Islamic principles; do not believe in the fundamentals of a religious governance or do not agree with the Constitution."
